

After, each client updates it's own local gradients,

- 1 The updated local gradients are sent to the selected party, in this case it is blood bank. This is to show that clients can communicate during DFL.
- 2 The model is then updated with local data and gradients.
- 3 Lastly, the updated model is sent to all other parties.