

"Implement effective strategies to curb environmental pollutants in the atmosphere at different altitudes by reducing emissions from industrial sources like factories and vehicles. Additionally, monitor these emissions using specialized equipment and stringently enforce regulations to ensure industries adhere to best practices and environmental standards."