For all in the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the Lord?" 4 When Moses heard it, he fell on his face, 5 and he said to Korah and all his company, "In the morning the Lord will

It was true that Job was a perfect and an upright man and not such a one as his friends had represented him; but he ought not to have insisted so much upon it, as if God had therefore done him wrong in afflicting him. Yet, it should seem, Elihu did not deal fairly in charging Job with saying that he was clean and innocent from all transgression, when he only pleaded that he was upright and innocent from the great transgression. But those that speak passionately and unwarily must thank themselves if they be misunderstood; they should have taken more care. 2. ... from the outside come the attacks to the Pope and the Church, but the sufferings of the Church come right from the inside of the Church, by the sins committed inside the Church itself. "We knew this is already, but today we see this in the most horrifying way: that the greatest persecution against the Church doesn't come from its enemies outside, but from the sins within. And that the Church has therefore a great need to re-learn penance, to accept purification, to learn forgiveness but also the necessity for justice. Forgiveness doesn't substitute for justice. Yes, you have lost a little that you hold sacred, everything that has been central to your identity as a people." (Even their language changed during the exile; the only books in the Old Testament which are not originally in Hebrew, were written during this period.) Furthermore, a series of prophets - Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micah, Ezekiel, and others - make very clear that the reason for these losses is due to their misplaced worship of idols, their misuse of the land through its unfair distribution, their oppression of the needy and mistreatment of the alien. So the people of Israel were stripped of all their prior sense of position and status, all the external trapping of their identity and security. Jeremiah even tells them in Cha. 42 that any attempt to hold onto their land, or even flee to Egypt, would be an act of disobedience to God. As a nation, they were called
