

System: This question is part of an IQ test, answer it to the best of your ability.

User: Solve for the word in the brackets (first and last letter given; missing letters indicated with underline) that means the same in one sense as the word on the left and in another sense the same as the word on the right. Please keep your answers concise.

VB 26: register(L_ _T)lean

VB 27: obligate(T_ _)link

VB 28: contest(M_ _ _H)equal

VB 29: blockage (J_ _) preserve

VB 30: whip(L_ _H)tie

> Assistant: The word in the brackets is "L_T".

The word on the left is "L".

The word on the right is "T".

The word in the middle is "H".

The word that means the same in one sense as the word on the left is "L".
The word that means the same in another sense as the word on the right is "T".

Please let me know if you have any questions or need further clarification.