

Tools/Equipment: The ricotta cheese is poured in a ceramic bowl instead of a glass bowl; The person mixed the cheese using a spoon instead of using it to scoop out the cheese. Score: 4/5

Technique: The person squeezed the container upside down to pour the cheese instead of tilting the container and scooping out the cheese. Score: 4/5

Actions: The person stirred the cheese as an additional step. Score: 3/5

Tools/Equipment: The person is cutting the fish with a Chef's knife rather than a boning knife; The chopping board was placed on a wooden table compared to a concrete one. Score: 3/5

Technique: The person cuts the head of the fish as opposed to filleting the fish. Score: 4/5

Visuals: The fish is gray and white in color rather than a black and yellow one. Score: 2/5

Ingredients: The person filling one cookie instead of two; The person filling plain brown cookies rather than with chocolate bits on it; The frosting has running and smooth texture compared to thick and lumpy texture. Score: 3/5

Technique: The person filled the cookie by counter clockwise motion instead of clockwise; The person starts putting frosting in the side of cookie to middle rather than start in middle of cookie; Score: 3/5

Technique: The person has the spoon resting on the bowl as they pour the glaze, as opposed to using the spoon to pull the glaze as they pour. Score: 3/5

Actions: The person added a step; Scrape the glaze on the side of the bowl using a fork after pouring. Score: 3/5

Visuals: The glaze that is already on the bowl is dark blue, instead of purple; The poured glaze is light blue, instead of light purple. Score: 2/5