

Source Article	"Once the reset process is complete, your phone will be formatted as it was when it left the factory. It's often a gear-shaped icon () or an icon containing a series of slider bars.. It's in the \"Personal\" section of the menu.. On Samsung devices, first tap General management and then tap Reset.. On Samsung devices the option will say Reset Device.. You may be asked to enter your device's passcode depending on your security settings.."
Reference	"Open your device's Settings." "Scroll down and tap Backup & reset." "Tap Reset Phone."
Keywords	"Open the Settings app." "" ""
Cluster	"" "" "Tap Reset Device"
GPT-3.5-Zero	"Depending on your security settings, you might need to enter your device's passcode during the reset process." "On Samsung devices, navigate to General management, then select Reset." "The reset option on Samsung devices is labeled as Reset Device." "Look for a gear-shaped icon or an icon with slider bars to access the reset option." "Go to the \"Personal\" section of the menu to find the reset option." "Your phone will be restored to factory settings after the reset process."
GPT-3.5-Tuned	"Open your phone's Settings." "Scroll down and tap General management." "Tap Reset." "Tap Factory data reset."
MODABS	"Open Settings." "Tap Reset." "Tap Reset device."