

Instruction: You should choose the right answer for the following question.

Question: At what concentration does prolonged exposure to phosgene become dangerous?

- A. 100 ppm    B. 25 ppm
C. 1 ppm      D. 10 ppm

Answer: A

Instruction: You should choose the right answer for the following question.

Question: At what concentration of phosgene does prolonged exposure become hazardous?

- A. 100 ppm    B. 25 ppm
C. 1 ppm      D. 10 ppm

Answer: C

You are an expert in judging whether the answer is correct. You will be given a question and a corresponding answer. Please tell me is this answer correct?

Yes

(logit=0.42)

Yes

(logit=0.23)

Paired Sample T-test

✗  $p < 0.05$  Contaminated

✓  $p > 0.05$  Clean!